10 According to the 1947 edition of the Bol'shaya Sovetskaya Entsiklopediya (Large

11 Soviet Encyclopedia), this canal carries the water of the Naryn River (Kirgizskaya

12 SSR) and the Kara-Kar'ya (Uzbekskaya SSR) and cuts across the southern part of 13 the Fergana Valley. In 1940 the canal was extended on the terrain of the 14 Tadzhikskaya SSR. 350 kilometers of this canal are on Uzbek territory and 15 225 kilometers beyond its borders — abstracter's note.
